Qwest is filing tariff language in its Tariff F.C.C. No. 1, Section 7, Private Line Transport Service, Section 16, Switched Access Service – Pricing Flexibility and Section 17, Private Line Transport Service – Pricing Flexibility. In Sections 7 and 17 Qwest is grandfathering Interstate Private Line 12, 24, 36 and 60 month pricing plans on Command A Link. Command A Link is an optional feature and function on Voice Grade, DDS, DS1 and DS3 Services. Command A Link will still be offered on a monthly basis. Qwest is making this change in order to accommodate future software upgrades and changes.

Qwest is also grandfathering the Interstate DS3 Private Line 120 month pricing plan. This change is being made in order to have consistent term plans.

As of February 28, 1998, Qwest grandfathered DS3 Service Electrical Interface Capacities of two and greater. In this filing Qwest is moving tariff material associated with these interfaces to the Grandfathered Services and Terms section of the tariff to reduce customer confusion.
